

NORTH CAROLINA.

Charlotte has an organized Lacy Club.

Corn in Greenville is 80 cents per bushel.

Sweet potatoes are being shipped North from Newbern.

The Roanoke News and the Warrenton (a weekly) were stolen from our office on Sunday.

Adgt. Greene is in Newbern looking after State affairs that have been lying in that city since 1869.

Dirt was broken on the Wilmington Coast Railway on Saturday last, and its early completion is looked for.

In Jones county, Col. McDaniel has a forty acre field of cotton that will average two feet in height, and one hundred and forty in corn that is from four to six feet high.

Several cars were thrown off the track on the Western North Carolina Railroad a few days ago. No damage other than the destruction of the cars and loss of connection.

Owing to the illness of Major Thos. W. Spawford, Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, of Richmond, will deliver the annual address before the young ladies of the Charlotte Institute.

A desperate encounter occurred on the train near Goldsboro between two soldiers, convicts and the guard of three men, in which both prisoners and guard received severe and painful wounds. They were being taken from Mobile, Ala., to Fort Macon for imprisonment.

Says the Wilmington Star: "We were shown yesterday, at Mr. Henderson's book store, a magnificent oil painting, executed by the Rev. John M. Oertel, of Lenoir, Caldwell county, N. C., which in point of taste, skill and masterly effect, will compare favorably with any painting of similar character that we have ever seen."

Grand Opening in the 5th Congressional District.

REDFIN, ROCKINGHAM CO., June 23rd, 1874.

Messrs. Editors.—An immense concourse of people gathered here today to hear Gen. A. M. Seales, our standard bearer in this district, and Windy Billy Henderson, the radical candidate, discuss the political questions of the day.

Gen. Seales first took the stand and made a noble speech of one hour and a half's length. He handled the noted Windy Billy with unengaged hands. He ventilated his entire history pretty thoroughly, not forgetting the "mule."

He charged that Henderson bought his nomination in a packed Convention. The General warned Mr. Henderson on Civil Rights. Said he (Henderson) was a "fellow traveler," and that he was on the opposite side. Now, Mr. Henderson, you tell us how you stand today? Billy snarled considerably, hesitated nobly, and finally said nothing. The shouting was not so loud, and forcing Billy to the wall, at last got him to express himself. He said he was not in favor of the mixed school provision, but the rest of the bill he endorsed. General Seales told him that would never do—his bill would come out squarely on one side or the other. Then turning to the colored people (of which there were a large number present), the General said: "If you wish to know how I stand on the Civil Rights bill, take the vote and find out how a majority of my colored friends here stand. I am opposed to the bill." Great applause from the colored people here greeted the speaker. It is impossible to do justice to General Seales' effort on this occasion in this hurried note. It was a manly effort—reviewing the entire political field and coming fearlessly up to the very letter of the Conservative platform. Everybody, white and colored, were well pleased with the speech.

Windy Billy undertook to reply to Gen. Seales. I did not hear all of his speech, as I was compelled to leave by train about a o'clock, but the part I did hear was remarkably weak even for Windy Billy.

According to arrangement, Gen. Seales was to have 15 minutes in which to reply to Henderson. Fifteen minutes is short time in which to make a political speech, but the half of Henderson's effort which I heard was a type of that which I didn't hear, 15 minutes was all the time Gen. Seales needed for a reply.

Rockingham is alive. But her down for a rousing majority.

RUFFIN.

A SAD DEATH.—Gallatin states that a melancholy accident has occurred in Switzerland. Mr. and Mrs. Liskard, a young English pair on their wedding tour, set out with a party of friends to make an ascent of Mont Blanc. They were taken to the summit of the Corridor the ladies felt the cold so severely that the guides advised returning. All were fastened together with ropes, and the bride set out, leaning upon the arm of a guide. Hardly had they taken a hundred paces when Mrs. Liskard and her companion suddenly disappeared down a crevasse covered with a slight layer of frozen snow. Unhappily the rope by which they were connected with the others broke, and they were seen no more. The husband at once procured extra assistance from the Grands-Chalets, but the bodies could not be recovered, and are probably some thousand feet down in the mountain. Death must have been instantaneous.

The New York Advertiser states that it lately "saw a negro occupying the place in the tread mill of a cider manufactory on Broadway that was formerly held by a dog." It thus comments on the fact:

"Mr. Bergh succeeded in having the dog removed from the tread mill on the ground of cruelty to animals. It will do Mr. Bergh's humane heart good to see how the negro fulfills the part of the dog. We presume this principle of natural justice—if you can't get a dog, try a negro."

CONFEDERATE MONUMENT AT SAVANNAH, GA.—The impressive ceremonies of laying the corner stone of a monument to the Confederate dead in the city park at Savannah, took place on Tuesday last in the presence of a very large attendance both of military and civilians. An eloquent and appropriate address upon the occasion was delivered by Hon. George A. Mercer.

The total cost of the great St. Louis bridge was nearly $9,000,000. Its total length is 4,094 feet.

Resolutions Adopted by the State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative Party—Plan of Organization.

The State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party, held in this city on April the 16th, adopted the following resolutions and plan of organization. We give our hearty endorsement to the resolutions, and hope the recommendations to discourage all manner of disorganization in our ranks will be carried out to the fullest extent. We cannot have any independent action this summer if we would succeed:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the people of the West in their want of railroad facilities, and pledge ourselves to use every available means to secure the early completion of their projected lines.

Resolved, That the Republican party having despoiled the State of millions of dollars heretofore appropriated for railroad purposes, is unworthy of public confidence, and all efforts to secure its re-election are unworthy of the Democratic-Conservative party.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic-Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disorganizers, and that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant for office who shall oppose the regular nominees of our conventions.

Resolved, That we tender to the friends of the Government our sincere congratulations at the triumph of the great principles of the Constitution as illustrated by the Democratic successes in the recent State and local elections.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

The following plan of organization of the Democratic-Conservative party was adopted:

1. The Executive Committee of the State shall consist of as many members as may be deemed necessary, and shall have all the powers heretofore conferred upon it.

2. The Executive Committee of the Congressional and Judicial Districts shall continue as at present constituted, until regularly changed, and shall have general supervision of the party in their respective districts.

3. In each county there shall be an Executive Committee composed of a Central Committee of not less than three members, and of at least one member from each township.

This Committee shall, under direction of the County Convention, have entire control of county matters. It shall be their duty to see that all the details of the canvases are properly conducted, by town and township, by competent challengers, that each Conservative casts his ballot, and that no fraud is perpetrated at the election. They are particularly enjoined to see that the necessary steps for the efficient organization of townships, and to seek by a wise administration to promote harmony and to inspire confidence.

4. All Executive Committees are properly chosen by the Conventions held for the respective territorial divisions; but if for any cause there should be a failure by the proper Convention to appoint an Executive Committee, then the State Executive Committee may supply the deficiency.

5. Nominations for County officers and members of the General Assembly shall be made by County Conventions; for Town and Township officers, by town and township conventions; for members of Congress and Judicial officers by the District Conventions.

6. All Conventions shall be open, and due notice of the time and place of convention shall be given.

The resignation of Col. Walter Clark, as a member of the Executive Committee on account of his removal from Halifax, was read and accepted, and Dr. H. E. Manning, of Winston, was appointed to fill the vacancy, after which the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Committee adjourn to meet again in this city on the 1st day of June next, and that all the members be requested to attend.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S TELEGRAMS.

Scenes in the House About its Close.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The following extract we take from our telegraphic report of Saturday night's proceedings in the House:

"Copious supply of lemonade and iced tea were furnished in the ante rooms with the closing hours of Congress. The determination and energy of the lobby grows stronger. Old and familiar faces are seen at the door in earnest renewal of appeals to Congressmen to make final efforts in behalf of their claims for the last time. The lady lobbyists are not in great number, but they are the most importunate. Many of the Congressmen have already made arrangements to leave Washington in the earliest trains after the adjournment. A few of them left to-night. The Currency bill has reached the President. The general opinion is that he will sign it.

The President, with members of the Cabinet, was at the capitol yesterday attending to business, and will be there to-morrow.

The Senate will have an Executive Session before adjournment to dispose of pending nominations.

Immediately on the meeting of the Senate to-morrow, Freelinghuysen will call up the House bill for the execution of the Federal laws.
